February is Black History Month

SHELTON STATE ANNOUNCES PLANS

Five special events are planned for Shelton State Community College as part of its Black History Month Celebration. Kicking off the college's activities will be a motivational talk by Kareem McNeal Wednesday, February 23, at 12:30 p.m. in the Alabama Power Recital Hall. McNeal who played football for the Crimson Tide 1991-94 is currently teaching at Shelton State. McNeal holds a B.S. and M.S. degrees from the University of Alabama. While playing for the University, he was All-Academic SEC and made the Southeastern Conference Scholar Athlete Honor roll. The Shelton Singers will also sing several numbers.

Thursday, February 24, the Keith Williams Trio, a well-known jazz ensemble, will play at noon in the Atrium of the Martin Campus.

Shelton's C.A. Fredd Campus will host a coffee grounding and reception Monday, February 28, from 7:30 - 9 a.m. in the college's cafetorium for faculty, staff, students, and community leaders. At noon on the same day, the Shelton Singers, under the direction of Glinda Blackshear, will sing a group of spirituals from the second tier balcony of the Atrium on the Martin Campus.

Tuesday, February 29, Shelton will host student singers from Stillman College as part of the Terrific Tuesday Concert Series. The college will hold the concert in the Alabama Power Recital Hall on the Martin Campus.

For additional information on Black History Month activities, call Shelton's public relations office, 391-2221.

MAN OF LA MANCHA OPENS

Man of La Mancha opens at the Bean-Brown Theatre February 25 with performances running through March 5. Based on Miguel De Cervantes' book, Don Quixote, the story is a hard-driving, often rough-talking, compassionate lyric drama. Directed by Paul Looney, the production features Benjamin Middaugh in the title role. Musical director is Milke Taylor, choreographer is Susan Looney, scenic designer is John Ross, costumer is Daryl Harris and lighting designer is Erin Hisey. For more information or to purchase tickets, contact the Theatre Tuscaloosa box office, 391-2277.

FACES 'N PLACES

*Shelton English instructor Pam Davis was recently recognized in "Who's Who Among American Teachers." This is the second consecutive year for Pam to be nominated and selected for this honor. Less than two percent of the nation's teachers are multiple year honorees.

* Shelton State was recently notified by Governor Don Siegelman that the college's application for a Federal Enhancement Grant for $40,000 has been approved for the Beautification of Highway 69 and May Hinton Drive. A special thanks to Senators Phil Poole and Charles Steele and Representative Bryant Melton for their help with this project.

* Shelton athletics are currently in full swing. On February 17 Shelton men's basketball team will play Bevill State-Sumiton. On February 20 the baseball team will play Bevill-Sumiton. On February 21: the men and women's basketball team will play Lawson State at Home. On February 26, the Lady Buccaneers' softball game will be at home against Jeff Davis. The Lady Buccaneers will play at home again on February 29 against Jefferson State.

*Mark your calendars now for Marketplace 2000 which will be May 11 at the Bryant Conference Center. The West Alabama Chamber of Commerce sponsors Marketplace each year.

SPRING ALUMNI ACTIVITIES

The Shelton State Alumni Association plans several events for the Spring semester. Monday, March 13, the Alumni Association will hold its annual fun night, entitled this year "Wings and Waterfalls." Dennis Crim will again be the speaker for the evening. More information will follow.

The Annual Meeting of the Shelton State Alumni Association will be held Tuesday, April 25, at 6 p.m. in the D rooms. Great entertainment and good food planned.

Health Fair Coming

The Wellness Center will host its annual Health Fair on Wednesday, March 15, from 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. Kicking off spring break, the Health Fair will have something for everyone. Over 50 booths and vendors will be there. There will be free food, fitness demonstrations. See you there!
